SUPPLY CHAIN WAREHOUSE OPERATIVE APPRENTICESHIP

LEVEL 2

Work Based Learning, Done Right

An Apprenticeship is a real job with training so they are a great way to continue your education whilst getting paid and pick up industry recognised qualifications as you go. As an apprentice, you will work alongside experienced staff, gain job-specific skills, earn a wage, and be given time to study towards recognised qualifications.

Warehouse Operatives work in a variety of warehouse environments. Work activities include taking deliveries, checking for damaged/missing items, storing goods, moving stock by various methods, picking/packing orders, loading goods for dispatch, maintaining stock records and documentation, and cleaning. They are required to safely use a range of equipment, machinery and vehicles, as relevant to their role and setting. This could include mechanical racking systems, materials handling equipment (MHE) or forklift trucks.

Warehouse Operatives communicate with a wide range of people and customers. They have a passion to meet customers' expectations by providing a quality service that encourages repeat business. Individuals in this role are highly competent in using industry-recognised systems and associated services (eg Traffic/Warehouse Management Systems) and will be able to work under pressure to tight deadlines.

What are the entry requirements?

There are no specific academic entry requirements however, all applicants need to attend an interview with a recruitment officer and undertake an initial English and Maths assessment.

The initial entry points for English and Maths are as follows:

For level 2 apprenticeships the minimum entry level for English and Maths is 'Entry level 3' (E3).

For all level 3 and 4 apprenticeships the minimum entry level for English and Maths is level 1, ideally level 2.

For all level 5 apprenticeships the minimum entry level for English and Maths is level 2 however, in some individual circumstances level 1 may be considered.

Who is this Apprenticeship for?

This qualification is for those who are currently working in or wish to work in a transport and logistics industry as a warehouse operative.
